Beginnings

PLEASE READ ! Definitely read this ! It will help you pick out the Clan you want to be a part of !

There are four Clans living in the forest. EbonyClan, IvoryClan, FrostClan and RavenClan.

EbonyClan and RavenClan have allied to fight for the darkness within themselves, but IvoryClan and FrostClan refuse to give in. The disagreements cause constant turmoil between the Clans. Death, battle, bloodshed, and heartache are the results of these foolish squabbles.

EbonyClan's History

EbonyClan was founded by Ebonyheart, or, better known as, "the black hearted warrior." They were the first Clan to fall victim to the darkness.

They have lived in the dark places, stalking through the night, eyes peeled for any sign of an enemy. They walk with their claws unsheathed. (That is only a metaphor. It means they're always ready and eager for battle.)

Home :

They live in the dark, shadowy, tall pines, and oak trees. The trees are mostly redwood. Mushrooms grow on the ground and on almost every tree. They hunt mainly squirrels, after all, squirrels tend to like pine trees and oak trees.

Common traits:

Thick or fluffy fur, pale, sharp colored eyes. They are clever and smart, but rude and scornful. (But when you create your Role Play cat, you do not have to follow the common traits.)

RavenClan's History

RavenClan was originally known as SwiftClan, but the ancient leader, Ravenstar, changed it. And this is why...

SwiftClan, after countless attacks from wild animals, rogues, twolegs, and even other Clans, fell apart.

Ravencall, a newly-named warrior, tried to stop his Clan from leaving their home. He told them warrior blood would always flow in their veins so long as fought for their home and their pride. But his pleas to stay were in vain. SwiftClan was not meant to exist. They left, abandoning their homes, scattering like rats.

Ravencall felt utterly defeated. He had lost everything. Finally, after many moons, he managed to bring the broken Clan back together. But when he did this, he realized this was no longer SwiftClan, it was a new Clan. It was his Clan. So, he named it RavenClan.

Even though their leader was a strong, loyal, noble cat, RavenClan still fell to the Dark Forces.

Home :

They inhabit the grassy moorlands, and thinned out trees of the hills. Their territory is full of bushes, short grass, tall grass, and spread out trees. Though they eat all prey, their main prey is rabbits and birds.

Common traits:

Sleek, black pelts, with dark eyes are the most common of traits in this Clan. Though they are evil, they are loyal, strong, and even a few of them compassionate.

IvoryClan's History

IvoryClan was the first Clan to resist the darkness. IvoryClan never changed their name. They refused to leave their beliefs, or change their name, or give up faith in StarClan. Because of this, these proud warriors have stayed strong. This Clan has simply become stronger and stronger throughout the harsh moons.

Home :

They live in the thick undergrowth of the dense forest. They climb through the tangled roots of many trees. They climb high to reach the open skies. Their main prey is mice and voles. Though they birds are a common catch for them.

Common traits:

They are larger cats with broad shoulders and strong hind legs. Amber eyes and pale colored pelts are the most common with them. These cats are skilled at hunting and fighting, and quick to learn new tricks.

FrostClan's History

FrostClan, the Clan of the greats, as it has been nicknamed. FrostClan are small cats, and are scorned by the other Clans. EbonyClan came up with this nickname. The other Clans sneer at their small size, but FrostClan cats are strong. They have yet to give in to the Shadows. They fight as one, hunt as one, and protect each other as one. They are united and strong.

Home :

FrostClan has the smallest of territories, but are still happy with the prey given to them by StarClan. They live by the river. Their territory has clearing where they can run, pine trees to hunt frogs and squirrels in, as well as thick, tangled, trees to climb through. Their primary prey are fish and frogs.

Common traits :

FrostClan cats are usually small with short, glossy fur. Blue and green eyes are common among these tiny cats. This Clan, though small, are courageous, and truly have the heart of a warrior.

Rules

Follow the rules or you will be kicked off! Try to Role Play even after I've kicked you off and you will be blocked!

You have been warned. Don't say I didn't warn you. If you don't read the rules, you're in trouble.

I will only allow people who have read the rules and put the password in to join.

Password - Breezepelt Rocks

1.) Only natural eye colors and pelt colors.

2.) Okay, having the occasional good cat in bad Clan is okay, but I don't need every single freaking cat to be perfect! Okay? So, no perfect little angels. I need some truly evil characters, alright?

3.) No smut! Animal smut is disgusting! So, no. Take it to PM or get off this RP.

4.) No prophecies without first consulting with me.

5.) No battles without speaking to me. Border squabbles that are over in a flash are okay, but no full on attacks.

6.) You must die at some point.

7.) No God-moding. (Attention hogging.)

8.) No canon characters.

9.) No bullying. Hate the character, not the Role Player.

10.) You can have up to four characters.

11.) No killing off characters that are not your own.

12.) Use Warriors swear terms only.

13.) Follow the same rules as in the real books.

14.) It would he greatly appreciated if you followed me, but I won't require it.

15.) Read Allegiances to see what positions are open.

16.) Please read the comments of others so you know what's going on.

17.) Your cat cannot have a mate or kits or anything more than a crush until they are a warrior.

18.) Always Role Play in third person and past tense.

Example:

Vinestar ran through the forest, only stopping when his patrol caught up to him. "Slow pokes," he panted jokingly.

NOT like this:

Runs around. Sits down.

And NOT like this:

Vinestar runs through the forest. He only stops when patrol catches up to him. "Slow pokes," he pants jokingly.

And NOT like this:

I ran through the forest. Only stopping when my patrol caught up to me. "Slow pokes," I pant jokingly.

Get it?

19.) You cannot RP until I have accepted you.

A / N :

I may come up with more rules later on, so watch for updates.

Let's admit it, we don't want to let go of the characters we kill off. Well, that's what this is for. Role play here if a hero of yours died.

VERY IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTs

Hello, fellow role players! I have something that needs to be read, and cannot be ignored under any circumstances.

First off, I am closing applications to EbonyClan, as there are FIFTEEN warriors. I think that's plenty, especially because there are two kits who will soon be joining them. I'm so glad everyone is enjoying this role play enough to give us more than enough warriors! Batpaw, Blizzardfang, and Paleflower are still open, so if anyone wants another position, but can't sign up, they can have them. Also, you may apply to be an elder, but otherwise it's closed.

I will be closing IvoryClan applications once we reach twelve warriors (not including apprentices, queens, elders, and kits.) Same goes for FrostClan and RavenClan.

FrostClan and RavenClan could still use more warriors. If anyone would like to play Coldpaw, Timberpaw's brother, please comment on this part.

I am appointing Cloverstrike (hollykins101) as deputy of RavenClan.

If you see a Clan is full, but there are no elders/queens, it means you may apply to be an elder/queen, but nothing else. If the Clan in full except for the queens, you may have a permanent queen with no more than one kit. I just don't want to be overrun with applicants, though I am pleased you all enjoy this so much.

If you want more characters, but you don't want to be that one person that has literally every cat to one Clan, please go check out the Warriors Role Play by WarriorsOfIvoryClan!

Prophecy

It was a requested that I create a prophecy, so here it is:

The tree which burns fiercely will rise from darkness and destroy the the gentle songs of peace. Only the one who is set apart can end the tyranny of death.

I will explain what this means to the cats included in the prophecy, which are . . .

- captaincat12
- kitkatt6819
- Kalahari_Desert
- CTTheSeaWing
- MoonCastor
- Humnathegreat
- Night_Flyer
- livyy_livy
- CaramelJackDaughter

I will explain the previous nine what the prophecy means in a chain in this part. DO NOT under ANY circumstances read that chain unless you were one of the nine tagged. If you do, you will be removed from the role play PERMANENTLY!

If you want a prophecy about your cat, tell me through PM.

Here are the newly opened positions:
